PROMOTION IN THE EAST

Plenty of Room for Tourist Agitation There.

"The people of the east are much interested in Hawaii," said E. A. P. Newcomb, the well known architect who returned yesterday on the Alameda from a twenty months' visit in Buffalo, New York.

"And they are also very anxious to learn all about the Islands," continued Mr. Newcomb. "I did not see any of the Promotion Committee's literature until I reached San Francisco, but I believe there is a good field for work of this kind in the East. Since I have been away there, four or five of my friends have visited Hawaii for lengthy periods, and I expect to see quite a number of them come here very soon. I believe individual effort, by people from Hawaii who are traveling on the mainland, will count more than anything else in the tourist campaign. Coming over on the train I was asked many questions as to the Islands, by casual acquaintances on the cars, and some of them expect to come here, who intended to stay in California. I was asked if we had any hotels here; whether there were any boarding houses where rooms could be had at reasonable rates.

"I think there the Promotion Committee is doing good work, but it should be made to reach the Eastern States where there are many wealthy people who spend their winters in California. On the train one woman asked me if it wasn't terribly warm here and I informed her that it was never colder than sixty degrees or hotter than eighty degrees above zero; but I also informed her that winter was the best time to visit the Islands, as the cold weather of the East would then be avoided."

Mr. Newcomb has been in Buffalo engaged in his usual vocation of architect, having been called east by an old client to execute plans for several buildings. He expected to remain but a few months, but business lengthened his stay into a twenty months' visit. He is accompanied by his sister.

Mr. Newcomb while away superintended the building of a Settlement House at Buffalo, said to be the most complete in the world. It was built by the daughters of the late Dr. S. P. R. Watson as a memorial to their father and mother. It was furnished completely by the sisters.

BATHING PLACE FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Manager H. Wingate Lake of the Alexander Young Hotel announces that in future the beautiful beach resort of the hotel, formerly the residence of Alexander Young, will be reserved on Saturday mornings for the exclusive use of school children and their chaperons who may wish to go in bathing. Mr. Lake says that as there is no bar in connection with the Young Hotel Annex the school children will have a very good place to go, free from contact with any rough element. The Annex has been put in good condition recently. The beach is fine for bathing, there are good bath houses and there is good attendance. The rooms containing the shower baths are large and a number of youngsters can use each at the same time. Little girls when in bathing usually desire some good place where they may lounge for an hour or so afterwards in order to dry their hair and the broad lanais of the annex furnish such a place. A lady has charge of the bathing and will keep a watchful eye on the young folks in order that they may meet with no difficulties.
